

THE REV. KENAH EXHAM, following his marriage to Beth Anne Gibson, our former director of Religious Education, is presently priest-in-charge of the historic parish of St. Paul's, Dawson City. We are grateful that we have not lost Beth Anne from our Diocese. Her young loveliness and trained skill to communicate the Gospel to the young have been a great boon. Kenah and Beth Anne met at Trinity College, Toronto, when Beth Anne was a student at Anglican Women's Training College. Kenah is a Bachelor of Education and, as well, a gifted musician. The Yukon has indeed hit it rich to have mined these two Gold Nuggets for the Klondike.
